

EAL Teaching through the Learning Village

Providing targeted online and offline EAL learning for 6-14 year-old English language learners in schools where English is the language of instruction.

Your teachers will benefit from:

- Clear strategies to support new-to-English & intermediate EAL arrivals in the mainstream
- Time-saving, ready-made EAL online and offline resources/games to use immediately (including extensive beginner-intermediate English, curriculum content and phonics programmes of learning)
- Increased capacity to support more learners
- Assessment for learning and cross-curricular planners, built in assessment tools and tracked progress of every learner
- Blended learning (the combination of e-learning with traditional classroom methods and independent study to create a new teaching methodology).

The Learning Village can be used to provide:

- Customised, individual EAL learning programmes offering opportunities for learners to:
 - practise speaking, listening, reading and writing
 - progress at their own rate
 - take ownership of their learning
- Flexible small-group EAL lessons
- Support for targeted EAL whole class teaching using the teacher demo
- Flashcards to support every lesson
- Resources that cater for new EAL arrivals
- Support for EAL learners in school and at home

Your learners will benefit from:

- Quick English learning and improved in progress. (See www.learningvillage.net/casestudy)
- An increased capacity to support themselves
- Picture-based English learning suitable for children with any language background
- Strengthened home-school bonds
