

Special offer for 2016 EAL Teaching through the Learning Village

Providing targeted online and offline EAL learning for 6-14 year old English language learners in schools where English is the language of instruction.

Your teachers will benefit from:

- Clear strategies on how to support new-to-English and intermediate EAL arrivals in the mainstream
- Time-saving, ready-made EAL online and offline resources/games to use immediately (including extensive beginner-intermediate English, curriculum content and phonics programmes of learning)
- An increased capacity to support more learners
- Assessment for learning and cross curricular planners, built in assessment tools and tracked progress of every learner
- Blended learning (the way e-learning is being combined with traditional classroom methods and independent study to create a new teaching methodology).

By providing this training for teachers, your learners will benefit from:

- Quick English learning and an increase in progress. ealteaching.com/reviews
- An increase in their capacity to support themselves
- Picture based English learning suitable for children with any language background
- Strengthened home-school bonds

The Learning Village can be used to provide:

- Customised, individual EAL learning programmes offering opportunities for learners to:
 - practice speaking, listening, reading and writing
 - progress at their own rate
 - take ownership of their learning
- Flexible small group EAL lessons
- Support for targeted EAL whole class teaching - teacher demo
- Flashcards to support every lesson
- Resources that cater for new EAL arrivals
- Support for EAL learners in school or at home

EAL Teaching through the Learning Village Course Details

This 1-day course trains Class Teachers, EAL Teachers or Teaching Assistants to provide effective EAL support for EAL learners in their school.

- Have you ever had training in planning for EAL learners?
- Do you have a systematic way to assess your EAL Learners?
- Do you know exactly what your EAL learners need?
- Do you help your learners to be better language learners?
- Can you provide more support for transitioning learners into the mainstream?

This 1 day course guides you through assessment, planning and delivering finely tuned, time-limited EAL lessons for new arrivals and intermediate learners with gaps in their understanding of vocabulary and grammar structures.

The course includes:

- Survival language for the first few days
- Assessing children with EAL
- Using a second language writing system
- Effective teaching and learning for children with EAL
- Planning and using survival language intervention
- Using effective language learning strategies
- Learning about resources for supporting EAL teachers
- Reflection
